New York Store

Established 1853. Sole Agents Butterick Patterns.

Spring Openings TO:DAY

Millinery, Capes, Jackets and Tailor-Made Gowns ...

The leading fashion centers as well as our own skilled artists have all contributed to this most elaborate twentieth century showing that is here for your inspection.

Music, 2 to 5.

-Second Floor.

Pettis Dry Goods Co.

Potatoes.

FINE COOKERS

Fancy Grocers

162 and 164 North Illinois St

Phones 892.

AMUSEMENTS.

W. B. Watson's Oriental Burlesquers will open a week's engagement at the Empire this afternoon

Director General Bostock, of the Zoo, wires from Baltimore that he expects to arrive here to-day with a consignment of new wild animals. The usual programme will be given to-night.

Monday night of next week is the date of the first appearance in this city of the famous Klaw & Erlanger Comic Opera Company, headed by Jerome Sykes, Helen Bertram and Adolph Zink, producing De Koven & Smith's latest success, "Foxy Quiller," which is asserted to be a worthy successor of the popular "Highwayman."

"Human Hearts," the opening attraction of the current week at the Park Theater, ening, humanizing play. Like "Shore Acres," of which it was the successor at the Fifthavenue Theater, New York, for a year's run, it appeals to all classes and pleases every spectator. The cast that will interbe of entire competence.

Klaw & Erlanger will present Paul Kes-Drury," at English's Opera House late April, with Miss Ada Rehan as the star. This will be the first production of the play in this city and the first appearance of other of birds. ss Rehan here in several seasons. The character of Nell Gwynn in this muchdiscussed play is the first creation attempted by the distinguished actress in five

When the curtain fell on the closing "When Knighthood Was the Criterion Theater, New York, a week ago last Saturday night, Miss Marlowe had played the role of Princess Mary Tudor in the presence of just 74,000 people during the metropolitan run of the These figures represent the capacity of the Criterion Theater during all the open nights since Jan. 14, when the en-

Few plays afford the excellent opportunities for fine emotional acting that are given in "East Lynne," the dramatization of Mrs. Henry Wood's widely-read novel. These opportunities are fully improved by Miss Agnes Burroughs (sister of Marie), is starring in the play this season, supported by an excellent company Miss Burroughs has been secured for the Park by Manager Fred C. Dickson and will give the earthy such are they six performances during the latter half of the present week, commencing with the News of the triumphs scored in other by the renowned Leipsic Philharmonic Orchestra, directed by Hans Winderstein, has evidently been read by patrons of English's Opera House, judging by the surprising advance sale of seats for the engagement of the organization at that ouse Wednesday night. The sale is described as surprising in view of the com petition of Sousa's band to-night and Mme Bernhardt's appearance to-morrow night. M. Josef Slivinski, the celebrated Polish piano virtuoso, will be the soloist.

XXX A great deal of interest has been aroused by the forthcoming debut in vaudeville in this city of Miss Grace Van Studdiford, the noon and the remainder of the week Miss Van Studdiford will be heard in her most enjoyable operatic numbers for the first time on the specialty stage in Indianapolis. The week is made still more notable by the engagement of the eminent legitimate comedy players, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew, who will present their charming comedletta, "When Two Hearts are Won." Nor has Manager Myers stopped with the engagement of three such brilliant stars but has provided his patrons with a lengthy and pleasing bill in addition, including ten | the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that splendid moving views reproduced by the Manager Frank McKee has certainly provided Comedian Peter F. Dailey with al a hilariously funny and cleverly-writter musical comedy entitled "Hodge, Podge & For his leading woman no less a favorite than Christie McDonald has been | heard a great voice out This combination is further strengthened by the presence of a superb female chorus and such well known enter-Niven (late contralto of the Metropolitan Opero English Company, New York), Harold Crane, Amy Lesser, Charles Winters. Martha Steyne and Georgia Laurence. The production is handsomely staged and richly ostumed and the libretto includes a whole host of catchy and tuneful songs.

XXX A number of excellent seats for the perter. It is interesting to learn from the statements of many who have tried the experiment that so convincing is the remarkable art of these remarkable players that | of the earth their productions are deeply interesting as well to those who know little or no French as to those who understand the language thoroughly. This is due to the fact that day, French actors, as a rule, and certainly in the case of Mme. Bernhardt and her eminent associate, are pastmasters of the elusive and difficulty act of pantominm by which a comprehension of the meaning of that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh spoken words may be gained from the gessures and facial expression of the speakers, I abomination, or maketh a lie; but they

IN CITY OF DEAD.

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.) sonant voice of Dr. Haines rang out clear

and impressive in the striking words: "I am the Resurrection and the Life, saith the Lord. He that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. I know that my redeemer liveta and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. I shall see for myself and mine eyes shall behold and not another. We brought nothing into this world and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord, God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore, will not we fear even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort who comforteth us in all our tribulation that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are com-

"Almighty and most merciful God, our down in tender love and pity, we beseech Thee, upon thy servants whose joy has been turned into mourning, and according pleased to uphold and strengthen and comfort them. Give unto them a sense of Thy presence and of Thy love to us in Jesus Christ, and help us all even now to realize that earth hath no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. And may the peace of God that passeth all understanding keep our hearts and lives through Jesus Christ, our A Carload of fine Colorado Lord. Amen."

SINGING BY THE CHOIR. "Rock of Ages," one of the hymns greatly enjoyed by General Harrison in his lifetime, was rendered by the chorus choir of forty voices, directed by Edward Nell. The members of the choir were the Misses Georgia Galvin, Grace Prow, Beatrice beth Rieger, Bertha Holland, Marguerite Reynolds, Mary Lawson, Kate Gibson Lulu Brown, Jessie Linton, Tucker and Miss Feasey, Mesdames W. H. Howard, W. E. Neff, Frank Fuller, H. H. Howland, Edward Nell, O. T. Behymer and Mrs. Hurt, and Messrs. Charles K. Henderson, Homer H. Van Wie, Paul Jeffries, Frank Taylor, H. M. Talbot, Frank Sheppard, Verd Mayer, W. L. Evans, Oscar Bryan, J. H. Roberts, H. W. Laut, Charles Clary, Otto Penniche, Carl Morris, Charles

D. Ebert, Herbert Spaan, W. M. Kunkel and Charles Green. The Scriptural reading was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Niccolls, pastor of the Second with General Harrison during the sojourn of both men in the Adirondack mountains for the past few summers. The selections and receive you unto myself that where I am there ye may be also.' dead raised up and with what body do they sowest is not quickened except it die; and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain; but God giveth it a body as it bath glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. GLORY IN THE SUN. rection of the dead. It is sown in corrup in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual was spiritual, but that which earthy, and as is the heavenly such are have borne the image of the earthy we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I show you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed in moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump, for the trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised incorruptible. and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption and this mortal shall have put on immortality then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: 'Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death the strength of sin is the law. But thanks our Lord Jesus Christ. beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of your labor is not in vain in the Lord NEW HEAVEN AND NEW EARTH. tainers as William E. Broderick, Della shall be His people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are all who heard it. Many doubtless recalled to finer issues. that only a few weeks previously the same to with the closest attention by the man of the occasion.

"And I saw no temple therein, for the

Dr. Haines's Sermon.

Mr. Haines spoke as follows: "How our thoughts of God and His providence are widened by these teachings of the sacred Scriptures to which we have With the reading of these words of com- listened. They constitute the message and fort Dr. Haines offered the following all the message for this hour. I can add nothing to that great and tender and glorious message. I shall not attempt to do so. Heavenly Father, who dost not willingly No words of mine, however well meant, can larger spheres of service for him yonder. grieve or afflict the children of men, look | meet the unspeakable sorrow of human hearts under earth's bereavements; for one reason, that man's wisdom unaided by divine revelation does not go very far beyond to the multitude of Thy tender mercies be | the things that are seen and temporal. But these Scriptures give us glimpses into the unseen realities of God's great universe, and yet no book recognizes more fully than the Bible the sad facts of life in this world. It recognizes the mystery and the sorrowproducing nature of many of God's providences as seen and experienced by men. finite reasons cannot fathom.

dences as far as we actually see them may walls at this service. That flag! How appear wholly dark and painful, but beyond | much it really meant to him! How time

" 'Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But trust Him for His grace; Behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face.'

SORROWFUL EXPERIENCES. "What I do, said our divine Lord, the as such trust in Him. This is faith, not blind credulity. Faith verifies itself in the experience of those who really exerof man, it is man's spirit reaching up through the darkness and clasping the hand of the infinite and loving Father. "But in the midst of the gloom we may and that God's presence is tender mercy of our God the day spring light to them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death.' These words have come to sorrowing hearts in all generations like music in the night. "Three great shadows that darken human life are sin and suffering and death. Jesus Christ, the dayspring from on high, gives light to those in the darkness of sin. He has by His sufferings, death and resurabound. He has brought light into the darkness of human suffering. He does not promise to keep men from suffering, but man can say: 'O.death, where is thy sting?' tory through our Lord Jesus Christ.'

where the need is greatest the grace He ing. Listen, He speaks: 'Let not your heart of us are comparative strangers to one another, but all of us, whether from distant in its loyalty to rectitude and to country and God, is indeed a rich heritage. We will not be ashamed to open that page of our

THOUGHTS TURNED TO PAST. icy, and furnished the American Republic | tivities of life are the only cure.

which are written in the Lamb's book of just and clean; and in the years since, as a broadminded, patriotic, earnest citi-Following the Scriptural reading, Mr. | zen, in close touch with the problems that Haines delivered his tribute to the mem- are most affecting the lives of men, the ory of the dead statesman in a voice that | problems of government, of education, of was trembling with suppressed emotion. | charity, of religion; the recollection of all At times during the delivery of his address | that he has said and done comes to us Dr. Haines seemed on the point of break- | now with peculiar impressiveness. What ing down completely, so powerfully affected is brought home to the minds of us all was he by the sad scene before him and is the number of ways in which, through by the memories of his close friendship speech and pen and deed, he touched the with the deceased that came rushing over different interests of society in the city him in the presence of the body. The ad- and the Commonwealth and the Nation dress created a protound impression upon and the church, and always touched them

"His life, so diligent and many-sided minister had pronounced a eulogy upon in its activities, has never stopped growex-Governor Mount, which was listened ing and expanding. It has seemed to many of us that that life was never more vigwhose form now lay motionless and cold orous intellectually, perhaps never more in death before him. This startling reali- widely influential, than it was at the very zation of the rapid and sharp changes of time the summons of God came, calling shadow from the heat. Blessed be God, life added immeasurably to the solemnity His servant to come up higher. The departure of such a citizen from this land rolls a heavier weight of responsibility upon you who remain.

A RESERVE POWER.

"Like all truly great men, he gave one the impression of a reserve power upon which he had not drawn. Did we not all of us carry the feeling that there were resources in his nature for achievements beyond anything that even he had realized? It may be the infinite Father has Of the life of that realm we have little in detail, but we are told that there His servants shall serve Him. The faith of the laureate even in the time of his bereavement rose high and it was Christian faith: "'Nor blame I Death, because he bare

The use of virtue out of earth; I know transplanted human worth

Will bloom to profit, otherwhere.' "What a noble example he furnished of intelligent, courageous, continuing patriotism! He felt himself to the last to be a vital part of the Nation. He did not lose Clouds and darkness are round about Him; his interest in its welfare after he came His judgments are a great deep which our out of office. On the contrary, that interest deepened and increased until the strain of "And so we have impressed upon us a it upon his mind and heart were heavy. lesson of caution. Judge nothing before the The fiber of his patriotism was American time. We know but in part, and partial to the core. Fitly does the flag of the Naknowledge is misleading. God's provi- tion cover that casket and adorn these with a passionate devotion and believed that it was a country worth dying for and worth living for.

"Patriotism is a great word here in Amerindividual man is all corporations, industrial enterprises, organiscaffolding for the building of individual manhood. That is the highest product of righteous manhood. Behind that quiet, unassuming dignity of manner there was the simplicity and the straightforward sincerpurpose. He could not use assumed corweaknesses or pandering to their prejuon occasions by the austerity of his manner, especially when he was absorbed in juestions of importance and desirous of implicitly, and they were not disappointed. They found that they could rely upon him what he said. Beneath that austere outward manner there was a genuine sympathy and even a deep human tenderness "He was honest-minded. itself also in that mastery of accurate expression which he exhibited. The golden from his lips like minted coin. How easily brings is the most sure and the most lov- | you reached that you came to something HUMAN EXCELLENCES.

A NEIGHBOR'S MANHOOD.

"I do not speak these words to magnify and faithful life. It would be impossible to heavenly home stronger and dearer unto voice the full sense of the grief and loss | them. that fills the hearts of multitudes through-

PERSONAL RELATIONS.

I cannot trust myself to speak of the personal relations in which he honored me with all friendship and helped me with

Tired and Nervous

It is easy to tell when your nerve-force and vital power are slipping away from you. When your day's work leaves you weary and exhausted; when you are so nervous, irritable and sleepless that your nights are passed in restless tossing; when you get up in the morning with no appetite for breakfast, and go around all day with a headache; you may be sure your nervous strength is being used up faster than it is being renewed.

"Overwork and business cares run me down in health until I was so nervous and sleepless that I could not rest at night. I have taken a number of advertised remedies, but never found anything that would quiet and soothe the overtaxed nerves as quickly as Dr. Miles' Nervine. One dose before retiring, after a hard day's work at the store, makes me sleep as peacefully S. E. WILLOUGHBY. as a babe." Clyde, N. Y.

Gives the tortured nerves a rest, helps them regain their tone and steadiness, and is speedy remedy for nervous troubles of every kind.

Sold by all druggists on a guarantee,

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

minds in this sad hour to that divine may abide in peace. redeemer in whom he trusted and beever the guide and companion in all life's strong pillar, a leader and a guide among to the north and east of it. journey. For Jesus Christ-Son of God, Son | men, raise up others among them, we beof Man-is the supreme power for life seech Thee, who shall follow in his footin that which is to come."

Dr. Niccolls's Prayer.

Niccolls offered prayer, as follows: Lord of men, Thou hast been our dwelling clearer vision of the greatness of life in so then also which sleep in Jesus will God place in all generations. Thou art our Jesus Christ, and do Thou enable us by bring with Him." refuge and our strength, a very present pitieth them that fear Him. Therefore, row and we humbly beseech Thee through the mediation of Jesus Christ that Thou wouldst regard our prayer and manifest Thy mercy to us in our affliction. "Thy ways, O Lord, are not as our ways.

greatness is unsearchable and clouds and vision, but we know that justice and judgand that mercy and truth go before Thy face. We are indeed carried away as with a flood. Our days are as a hand breadth and the glory and beauty of man are as the flower of the field that perisheth. But blessed be Thy name, Thou hast brought life and immortality for us through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Lord, who again for our justification. We rejoice before Thee even in the midst of our sor row that Thou hast given to us the victory over death and the grave, and enobled us to stand in the assured hope of an eternal life. Because we believe Jesus which shines upon us and gives us peace.

MINISTRY AND EXAMPLES. "We thank Thee, our father in heaven, for the ministry and examples of those whom Thou hast raised up and called and endowed with gifts and replenished by Thy Holy Spirit that they might better serve their fellow-men and lead them on to the fulfillment of Thy eternal purposes in Jesus Christ. For, as Thou hast exalted the mountains that they might bring down from the heights to the valleys and fields at their feet the blessings of the clouds, so Thou dost exalt men In honor and power that they may the better impart Thy gifts to the people whom Thou lovest. Thou makest them the channels of Thy power and of Thy grace.

"Especially do we thank Thee this day for the life and ministry of him whose deplore. He was Thy good gift unto us. and to this great Nation. Thou didst We thank Thee for all that he as chief magistrate-for the purity and trating vision which Thou didst give unto became qualified to be the guide and the leader of men. We give Thee our hearty

"Above all we do bless Thee that Thou didst give unto him that faith in Thy Son through the power of which he illustrated before the world the greatness and beauty of a Christian life.

pleased Thee to take that gift from us will: 'The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the

"O Lord, Thou art the God of truth, of righteousness, but Thou hast also declared city or his State, or his country, that moral father of the fatherless. By these titles the infinite God. And the sense of duty to | take hold of Thee and we beseech Thee to God thus uplifting, outreaching, is felt fulfill them in all of Thy fullness to the whom in Thy fatherly pity and so guide and strengthen them in the midst of sorrow that, remembering all of Thy mercies and strengthens men who really live under the | kindnesses in the past, Thy many and great "Our responsibility to God! Often have I Jesus Christ, unto him, they may meekly prayer! It would be impossible to say how pline. Do Thou, O Lord our God, so chasten fellowship with thyself, and may the the doctrine of his Saviour by a consistent | broken ties of earth make the bonds of the

> A SORROWING COUNTRY. "O Lord, God of our fathers, remember this day, we beseech Thee, our sorrowing country, and as Thou hast taken away anto be leaders among the people, and who in > his flock, we beseech Thee that Thou life of Thy servant whom purely and sincerely and walk in righteousness and recognize in duty supreme loyalty to God, and let a double portion of the spirit of him who so loyally served fall upon them to qualify them for the larger

> Spirit for their high office. Grant unto

LESSONS OF PROVIDENCE.

"Almighty and eternal God, creator and life, may we also have some new and lieve that Jesus died and rose again, even Thou shalt say, 'Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a many things. Enter thou into the joy thy Lord.' For that hour and for that reward keep us all by Thine abounding and for the sake of Him that taught us hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Give us this day our daily bread, and forors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for-Following the prayer by Dr. Niccolls the choir sang with great feeling the hymn,

'Hark, Hark, My Soul!" which was favorite with the late General Harrison. The tenor solo was taken by Director Nell and the chorus by the full choir. Dr. Haines requested the congregation to remain in the church until the pallbearers and the family and close friends of the deceased had taken their departure. He then pronounced the benediction, as follows: "And may the peace of God that passeth all understanding keep the hearts of these sorrowing ones and of all these present, and the children of God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.'

The organ played in subdued tones that famous Chopin funeral march as the fubody in silent tribute of respect to the body and mourners as they moved slowly down

AT THE CEMETERY.

The Brief but Beautiful Ceremonies

The last sad rites accorded to General and bliss in Thy eternal and everlasting and then the body of Indiana's greatest of General Harrison's Cabinet, United States senators, the Governors of various most citizens of the State of Indiana and the United States.

A space nearly seventy-five yards square had been roped off around the grave, and back of these ropes as far as the eye could for four hours, some with children in their arms, apparently unmindful of fatigue or the long wait that ensued before the coming of the cortege. There were old men who come lost from their parents;

the last, silent and uncomplaining. ASSEMBLING OF CROWD. The crowd began to assemble at Crown mate placed the number at 10,000 people. Two hours later the size of the crowd had

The main avenue leading from the west gate of the cemetery to the grave was constantly patrolled and kept free from travel by a squad of soldiers. The burial lot belonging to the Harrison family is situated on a rising knoll, the monument occupyof Mrs. Harrison was completely covered and the beautiful emblems were placed in semi-circle on the knoll, just west of the

The funeral cortege, which came from

I but voice that which I am confident so guide them by Thy spirit that our land and the immediate family took up a posihe would most desire when I lift your may be ruled in righteousness and truth tion just behind it. President McKinley, with Senator Fairbanks and others, stood "Remember, we beseech Thee, O God of at the head of the grave and the pallbearseech you to make him more fully than Zion, that as Thou hast taken from us a ers and other friends constituting the party

THE BURIAL SERVICE. As soon as the party had gathered which is life indeed in this world and steps and serve Thee in all fidelity as he around the grave the Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, of St. Louis, began reading in a low tone a part of the regular burial service "Remember us all this day, we beseech from the Presbyterian ritual. The words Immediately at the conclusion of the Thee, in the midst of this sorrow, and may were as follows: "I would not have you eloquent tribute paid by Dr. Haines to the lessons of Thy providence be doubly to be ignorant, brethren, concerning which the memory of the dead statesman, Dr. impressed upon our hearts. While Thou are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as dost remind us of the frailty of our mortal others which have no hope. For if we be-concluded the funeral director began saywas then lowered into the grave and herite. Mrs. Harrison, who had maintained a weep softly when the casket was lowered ually bowed to the arm of her escort. She seemed to take comfort, however, in the following beautiful words, read by the Rev. Mr. Niccolls after the vault sealed: "I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, right blessed are the dead Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their words to follow them. For as much as it hath pleased Almighty God, in His wise providence, to take out of the world the soul of our brother departed, we, therefore, commit his body to the ground; earth, to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; looking for the genlife of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ; at whose second coming in glorious majesty to judge the world, the earth and the sea shall give up their dead; and the corruptible bodies of those who sleep in Him shall be changed and made like unto His glorious body, according to the mighty working whereby He is able to subdue all things unto Himself."

DR. HAINES'S PRAYER. The ceremony at the grave was then concluded with the following prayer offered by Rev. M. L. Haines:

"Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the faithful, after they are delivered from the now rest from their labors; and we bedeparted in the true faith of Thy holy name, may have our perfect consummation

"O merciful God, the father of our Lorwho also hath taught us by His holy apos tle not to be sorry as men without hope for those who sleep in Him, we humbly beseech Thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness, that when we shall depart this life and receive that blessing which Thy loved Son shall then pronounce to all who love and fear Thee, saying, come, ye blessed prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech Thee. O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, our mediator and redeemen

"The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore.

Amen. ounced the funeral party returned to the carriages without delay and began driving rapidly from the cemetery. The big crowd which had sliently witnessed the last ceremonies at the grave remained for a short time to inspect the beautiful flowers and then began to slowly make its exit, many not reaching their homes until long after 7

Most of Family Still Here.

Nearly all the members of the Harrison or two. John Scott Harrison, the other brother, will leave for his ho lowa to-day, Mrs. Morris, a sister of General Harrison, will probably leave to-morrow for her home. Other members of the tending the long wait, they all remained to family and relatives have not decided when they will leave for their homes.

Chinese in Carriages.

known local Chinese joined the procession The Sons of the Orient were all devoted to General Harrison, and they sent a handsome floral tribute bearing the inscription 'Chinese Masonic Lodge' to the residence last Friday. They did not leave the carriages at the cemetery, but drove around the grave and then left.

A Beautiful Floral Tribute.

servatories and acted in the same capacity at the White House during the administration of General Harrison as President. Mr. Pfister was not in the funeral party, but he was at the cemetery during

Friends Call at the House,

Wanamaker was among the callers to pay his respects to Mrs. Harrison before leaving for his home in Philadelphia. Several other well-known people called at the house ### before departing from the city. Louisville City Officials.

A delegation of Louisville people, headed by Theodore Stern, president of the Board of Councilmen, came to the city to attend